Execulink Kicks Off their Second Annual Gifts of Christmas Program

Woodstock, ON – December 3, 2019 – Execulink Telecom’s annual holiday donation has been a long-standing Christmas tradition, bringing joy to those in need. Last year, the company launched their Gifts of Christmas Holiday Donation program, which was aimed at spreading festive cheer and giving back to their service communities. This year, marks the program’s second year in effect, with eight new communities receiving monetary gifts to local organizations, schools, groups and charities.

“Giving our communities the awesome experience they deserve is a fundamental pillar of Execulink’s Mission, Vision and Values,” says Ian Stevens, President and CEO of Execulink Telecom, “These holiday contributions allow us to give back and support organizations that have made a positive impact in their own communities throughout the year.”

The eight donation recipients will be revealed on the company’s website and social media pages throughout the month of December.
